

Taking the Leap to a Rock Solid Faith

Faithless Faith

Faith without action is like a petrol without a car. It's just wasted potential, and no one wants to waste their potential. This week, we'll look at how a Solid Rock Faith is built by serving the body of Christ.

Matthew 25:31–40

1. We all want to know what God's _____ are.
2. Brothers and Sisters = _____
3. The church = _____
4. The King = _____
5. Jesus = _____
6. When you serve _____ you are serving _____.

My Count Me In! Commitments

- I'll be here next Sunday
- I'll invite a friend
- I'll help boost our HQ – our Hospitality Quotient
- I'll get to know someone new each week (for 3 weeks)
- I want to help connect new people to RCC

Additional Notes

Digging Deeper and Going Further

Read Matthew 24:1–3 and Matthew 25. This lengthy passage includes one of the last conversations Jesus had in public with his disciples before his arrest. The passage begins with the disciples marveling at the city’s architecture and closes with a series of parables about the “end times.”

1. Read Matthew 25:1–13. What is the main message of this parable?

2. What do you think it means to keep watch or to be ready?

---

3. Read Matthew 25:14–30. Though the parable is about investing the Master’s money, what was Jesus implying we should be careful about investing?

---

4. How are you investing your life for the sake of the Master?

---

5. Read Matthew 25:31–46. What actions did the sheep do to show their righteousness?

---

6. The King clearly expected both the sheep and the goats to serve others. According to the King, who were they expected to serve?

---

7. According to the King, who did the goats serve?

---

8. If this parable is about the relationship of Jesus and the church, what does it mean to be a part of the “body of Christ” in this parable?

---

9. Read Acts 2:42–47 and 4:32–34. In what ways did the church members serve each other in the early church?

---

10. What are you doing to help make RCC the most caring and hospitable church in town?

---
