

Who's Going?

We're Going!

After the feeding of the 5000, Jesus chose seventy-two that he sent out to preach the gospel of the Kingdom of God. But he was careful about his sending – both who he sent and how he sent them. This week, we'll take a quick look at the Jesus' Strategy of reaching communities.

Luke 10:1–9

1. The faithful were _____.
2. They had a _____.
3. Their mission was _____ focused.

Digging Deeper and Going Further

Luke 10:1–9

After the feeding of the 5000, Jesus chose seventy-two that he sent out to preach the gospel of the Kingdom of God. But he was careful about his sending – both who he sent and how he sent them. This week, we’ll take a quick look at the Jesus’ Strategy of reaching communities.

1. Why do you think Jesus sent the 72 out to “every town and place he was about to go”?

2. What do you think Jesus meant when he said the harvest was plentiful? What was the “crop” and what do you think plentiful meant?

---

3. Why do you think Jesus instructed the 72 that they should pray for workers?

---

4. Why do you think Jesus made their job sound so ominous and difficult? Do you think the church should be as forthright about the requirements of being a Christian? Why or why not?

---

5. Why do you suppose Jesus sent out the 72 in pairs?

---

6. What were the 72 supposed to do once they’d secured lodging in the towns they visited?

---

7. Read Luke 10:17–20. What were the results of their work?

---

8. Why do you think the 72 were so successful?
